UP, OUTWARD, AND BEYOND all frontiers continues the growth of our school. From one small building in the 1870's, a graduating class of 12 in 1918, to five various-sized roofs housing 825 Namers from 72 parishes in 1958 is quite a jump.

Bridging the gap of time, space, and numbers have been our faculty and priests. Perhaps the farsightedness of HN's first pastor, Rev. John F. Gallagher, saw the tremendous job which our present head, Monsignor Charles W. McDonough, and four assistants undertake to minister to their children.

When the Lil' David who lives 27 miles away, the Namer who takes 76 steps across the campus to school, and all those who reside in between, join in prayer under their church's 77 year old roof, you see our story has not changed—only developed—as you WATCH US GROW.

FRIENDLY PERSUASION of half a candy bar leads to new friends among the freshmen as Carolyn Obojski shares a sweet with Timothy Dyko.

WITH A WHOOP of excitement and a sigh of dismay at the vanished vacation, Namers flocked to Gallagher and Carroll Sept. 4 to begin another year of learning (so hoped teachers). Students were greeted by the new principal, Sister Marie William.

After the first week of buying books, trying new classes and new teachers, and getting into routines, campus dwellers overcame post-vacation fever. But along came the city-wide Civil Defense Drill on the nineteenth to wake up complacent minds.

The first football rally the following day really roused spirits as players were introduced and game enthusiasts inhaled the brisk atmosphere of TD's, passes, and hopes for the best.

.... And in Ambles October

WITH THE FIRST AUTUMN TINTS, everyone, frosh to senior, really got into the school groove. Business-minded juniors and sophomores attended a Junior Achievement program. All Lil' Davids were greeted on the eighteenth by the first issue of "The Name". On Homecoming Day old and familiar faces dotted the campus and their owners were pleased to renew acquaintance with their Alma Mater. Thirty-seven seniors took the National Scholarship Qualifying Test.

FALLING LEAVES—RISING ACTIVITY

We Worked in Tune to Crisp Winds

Autumn Leaves, Snow Flurries, Spell November

OFF TO A GOOD START on the first day of November, junior and senior journalists attended a workshop sponsored by the Diocesan Press Association at Benedictine.

Lucky senior Mary Ann Roda wrote an essay titled "How Is Chamber Music an International Language?" and won first place competing with students of all Cleveland high schools.

It was a grand day for singing as the Glee Club presented a concert in honor of St. Cecilia.

Up went the thermometer till finally Namers reached their goal selling chances for the parish bazaar—and got a day off!

Yea! Basketball season opened on Nov. 27. Oh!!! how we tried. Winning isn't everything—and we still had so much to be thankful for on the next day, Thanksgiving.

Cub reporters got into the "professional" swing and attended the DSPA Writers' Tournament at Benedictine.

SWEET NOTES and joyous notes flowed freely at the Band's first Christmas Concert. Namers drifted away, full of the Christmas spirit.

We Greeted, Grumbled, Congratulated

With a Whirl of Good Wishes We Welcome December

SENIOR GIRLS got a thrill taking the "Betty Crocker Homemaking Test" on the third. Helping mother at home really did come in handy.

A triduum in honor of Mary Immaculate conducted by Father Matthew Meighan gave Namers a chance to prepare for Mary's great feast.

Seniors tried "everything under the sun" to make the ad drive for the "Namer" Yearbook a success—and it surely was!

'Twas the eighth day before Christmas, and all through the school, you could hear HN's great band presenting their first Christmas concert in their special harmonious fashion.

"Merry Christmas", exclaimed Namers as they left school on the twentieth for vacation.

And January Cleans the Slate

WHOOPS! We just came back to school and semester exams already! Gruelling tests grilled Namers, but a welcome oasis was retreat.

From Jan. 28-30, complete silence (almost) reigned. Father Edward Calkins, OSM, captured our interest, but Christ really conquered at General Mass and Holy Communion on the last day.

But the spell of sweet silence was shattered when February broke in . . .

February Focuses on Big Days

HN ARTISTS competed in the Catholic Book Week Poster Contest and were TV stars in "Inside Catholic Schools"!

Namer Scholastic, Holy Name's chapter of the National Honor Society, held the induction of junior and senior charter members on the sixth.

We celebrated Monsignor's birthday. Journalists moved to their brand new room. Our Lady's Sodality gave the year's first dance, "Heartbeat".

Lent opened with Stations on Friday and sacrifice every day.

Spring Brings Thoughts of Today, Tomorrow

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE, juniors and seniors avidly devoured career pamphlets, information, and talks which were amply provided during Career Week. Popping questions at telephone operator and doctor, Namers jotted notes and planned tomorrows.

The Catholic Universe Bulletin Drive sparked spring fever sufferers' spirit of competition and apostolic labors with a rally, homeroom pep talks, and a quarter commission for each subscription.

But it was spring . . . and while English classes strove mightily to write readable poetry, Lent ended with the ever-glorious Easter Sunday and spring vacation.

In May Blossom Special Events

MAY IS THE SPECIAL MONTH of social whirl for all Namers.

Awards Day put in the spotlight all Namers who deserved praise for doing well in studies, service clubs, athletics, and other fields of school activity.

Seniors undertook the great task of exams before underclassmen, so they would have time to practice for that outstanding day in their lives.

The most fitting event of all was May crowning. Marieann Berg, president of Our Lady's Sodality, crowned the Virgin in Holy Name Church. Seniors looked so distinguished dressed in their caps and gowns!

"IT IS—or isn't it?" wonders Carol Mencini as she applies the standard test for rain.

The annual senior breakfast was served in the cafeteria. Oh! How grown up they all looked in their best clothes.

Picnic time! What a thrill it was riding down-hill on the roller coaster! Boat riders just breezed through the wind and sunshine. After all the rides, famished Namers "devoured" their sandwiches. After some more fun and frolic, Namers "sleepily" got on the buses and headed for home. Seniors enjoyed a special picnic, this time without rides—but with lots of food. The water was cold, but some, daring and courageous, just dived in . . . .

As a farewell to the seniors, the juniors gave a lovely dinner-dance. The luscious dinner was held in the cafeteria.

We Gave in to Fever, Activity Rush

DEMONSTRATING smart Namer study habits in wide use during exams is Kathy Onuska.
STEP I: Glance over chapter headings and make each a question.
STEP II: Read to answer the questions you have formulated. Take brief notes.
STEP III: Tell yourself what you have learned, using your notes.

ALL EYES FORWARD

We March Into New Jobs, New Lives

The cafeteria was decorated so beautifully, the seniors almost couldn't believe their eyes. The dance was held in the gym. Juniors went all out on decorations there, too.

Freshmen and sophomores made use of the beautifully decorated gym and held their dance there. And it didn't take the freshmen long to get started dancing!

...And June Bursts In

TO THE STRAINS of "Pomp and Circumstance" march 147 capped and gowned seniors toward their eternal commencement. Those extra-pink cheeks and moist eyelids do mean tears—on parents and grads alike.

But only smiles are donned by those lucky ones, senior down to frosh, who will come back again in September. Now each Namer goes home for the summer. Dipping into local swimming pools, doing chores around the house, holding down jobs as clerks, delivery boys, secretaries, receptionists, telephone operators, and camp and playground counselors, Lil' Davids earn the butter for their bread.

Getting to eat it, too, will be travelers, by foot and by wing, who will be the center of attraction when another exciting year begins. After learning and applying teachings from our Alma Mater, we will all be older, wiser (we hope), and taller in character (we must)—so WATCH US GROW!

Faculty Lights Souls, Minds

WITH THE PATIENCE and understanding born of over 25 years of teaching, Mrs. Ruth Seitz enjoys a book with Marie Burke.

HATS OFF! With a deep bow we salute our faculty of 24 Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati, 6 diocesan priests, and 6 lay teachers of Holy Name.

Though one picture says a thousand words, the modesty of our Sisters (and a strictly enforced rule of never looking a camera in the eye) denies us the privilege of printing their likenesses. So their recognition in this book lies only in words. We salute their loyalty, service, and the practice of their art above and beyond the call of duty.

We honor, too, our lay instructors who cooperate with the religious faculty to make a well-coordinated team for whom victory is our welfare.

Advanced degrees, hard-earned wisdom of life, varied talents, and warm human natures lie behind the people behind the desks — our teachers.

IN THE MIDDLE of a busy day at the office, Mrs. Reynolds can't stop a minute even for a picture.

"I BAPTIZE THEE . . . ." 'Father' James Stankiewicz repeats the age-old words that open the door to our goal. And so opens the intensive study of this Sacrament in freshman religion. Georgiann Houdek and Steve Sidik assist as godparents as new member Joseph Stenson is brought into the fold.

OUR QUEST FOR HAPPINESS

Religion Charts Our Course

"WE NEED IT," smiles James Oddy, as he helps Jean Kares and Noreen Heffernan finish a poster for third year religion students.

HMMM, so this is where it all started?" discover juniors loria Plank and Jack McHale as they trace the beginnings American history.

AMERICAN HISTORY — again? wonder third year Namers as they see this subject on their "required list". But the intensive study of details that make history intriguing and of the people who make history, plus monotony-breakers like debates, discussions, and tests— keep the juniors vitally interested.

"AND GOD CREATED the heavens and the earth". World history students take things from there to Greek soap cities, conquering Romans, and present times. Frosh and sophomore Namers learn for the future through furious debates on past events.

ATHENS IN SOAP! Frosh John Murphy and Vivian Waravko examine the pride and joy of world history classes with its background of "Facts That Must Be Known".

WHY is the family so important? Who really runs our government? Why not have careers in politics? Get the answers — or give them — in civics.

Committee reports, panel discussions, notebooks — all in a day's work for civics students. Studying the Father Halton dispute, (dramatized by future lawmakers in a courtroom production), and keeping track of local and national events in daily student newscasting, — and little terse reminders of progress, — keep seniors constantly aware of the importance of this subject in their lives.

"I DO," says witness Marilyn Kuczynski to clerk, Pat Cloonan, as judge, Ken Trusiak waits to continue a trial in one of those fascinating senior civics classes.

MAKING THE ARREST of the famous thief Flambeau (Richard Basinski), is the equally famous detective Valentin (Kelly Stoker). Father Brown (George Obloj), smiles triumphantly as truth prevails in G. K. Chesterton's "The Blue Cross", a must for senior English students.

DREAMING HAPPILY of the day she may speak the language of love fluently is French I student, Vicki Keider.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON, Shakespeare, choral reading — frosh English students run the gamut and look ahead to advanced composition writing and manner-practicing as sophomores.

"NOW HEAR THIS!" English III students, using the microphone, practice public speaking on stage, and study the novel, switching from lung to brain power.

THE "CREEPING TOMORROWS" of "Macbeth" fly as fourth-year English pros intensively study Shakespeare's play and take time out to enjoy the fruits of their labors listening to the recorded versions of "Macbeth" and "Hamlet".

"COMMENT-ALLEZ-VOUS?" greet French students as they begin their lessons. First-year classes meet captivating new words. A monthly French magazine challenges the translations of second-year "professionals".

"HOW ARE YOU?" ask Carol Gernhard and John Gabor, demonstrating only one of the familiar expressions Latin III scholars use in class.

LANGUAGE LOVERS

Communication in Triplicate!

DRILL, DRILL, AND MORE DRILL! This foundation gets a little monotonous, so first year Latin students eagerly turn to Livy's exploits of Hannibal in the Punic Wars and lives of saints in Christian Latin.

Comes Latin II — more drill, this time on verbs but spiced now by passages of Caesar's triumphs. The "dead language" lives again in minds of third-year scholars translating Cicero, Thomas Aquinas, and other greats.

FIVE SENIOR GIRLS get up early every day to make the 8:15-8:40 Spanish II class. Diligently they strive to learn more rudiments of grammar ("Aiee—those verbs!"), and to apply them to the translation of Spanish human interest stories. There is only one Spanish class this year, and it is not in regular school time.

CLAP! CLAP! Sylvia Urbanowicz and Carol Boatman take time out during Spanish II for a whirl in the Mexican Hat Dance.

PERFORM the indicated operations —4a (2b+c+5d). Algebra students are able to solve this problem and many like it after much drill work. By working with numbers and letters, the student mathematicians learn to THINK clearly and quickly.

AS 20 NAMERS walk into senior math class, visions of geniuses dance in other students' minds. But after many trials and more errors, trigonometry scholars find for themselves that such thoughts are only dreams.

Entrants in the March national mathematics test discover the high standards in algebra and geometry expected of tomorrow's scientists. With an accurate eye on slide rules, a sharp pencil on innumerable pieces of scrap paper, and a clear mind on abstractions of solid geometry, the 20 walk out into the science-minded world of today looking to an exciting future.

FOR CLEAR MINDS ONLY

Mathematical Geniuses at Work

WITH THE CONCENTRATION born of four years of math, senior Bill Dyer measures angle theta in trigonometry class.

GLUED to their drawing boards designing like the engineers they hope to be, are mechanical drawing seniors Louis Iacoboni and Tom Zingale.

LEARNING THE PROCEDURE of draftsmen, junior and senior mechanical drawing students prepare themselves for their work of the future. New and fascinating to them this year are making blueprints from tracings and plates which they designed themselves.

LINE TECHNIQUES and letter principles were studied by juniors, while the more advanced seniors did architectural work and pattern developments.

REVIEWING ALL the general principles of mathematics is only one of the many tasks that general math students cover. Writing checks and making out deposit slips and working on other transactions form the business side of math. Not only mathematical work but also discussions of math problems complete the course.

Scientists Learn

Studying the what and why of weather forecasting enables them to fascinate fellow students by correctly predicting the coming weather changes. An explanation of air teaches them that "there is a lot more than meets the eye." From a study of elementary geology, they learn to recognize types of rocks and soil.

All leads to a better understanding of Almighty God.

TRIPS to Nela Park and the Republic Steel Corporation highlight the year for element, compound and molecule-immersed chemists. An eager 20 journeyed to neighboring high schools to hear experts on scientific topics from architectural engineering to biochemistry. Term papers written in class after feverish bouts with research books kept students hopping — and alert to the wonders of the world of chemistry!

FINDING that even water holds many fascinating and complicated wonders are chemistry students Gerald Shovlin, Janet Praznik, Bill Cromer and Carol Thom, as they perform experiments of electrolysis and distillation.

by Experiments

BIOLOGY STUDENTS learned of the world about them — of plants, animals and man. With mixed emotions they dissected worms, grasshoppers and frogs.

The high point of the year was the dissection of a cat, which held the enthralled interest of those with stronger constitutions.

OFF to the mysterious recesses of 208 go 26 physics students to measure specific gravity by floating corks on water, find Newtons (not fig) measuring mechanical advantage in efficiency of machines, and explore equilibrium wonders. Through swinging pendulums and metric sticks, these "scientists" test — and master — laws of nature.

"'ONLY GOD can make a tree', or a flower", says ~~Margaret Farkas~~ as she explains its parts to fellow biologist ~~Donald Rabitin~~.
Joann Relic, Tom Kuczynski

LOOKING like child's play but really requiring the deep concentration of senior physics scholars, Robert Zarzycki, Mary Ann Roda and Ronald Farrar, is the experiment on finding specific gravity.

Spotlight on Future Secretaries

A WELL ROUNDED TRAINING in office procedures is what every future secretary gets in office practice. The senior girls use everything from an Ohio Bell telephone kit to the mimeograph. They operate the comptometer and many other necessary machines. These "office workers" stress learning the duties and achieving the "personality plus" needed in their field.

"Dear Sir" rings through shorthand classes as students frantically take and translate dictation. Every day speed tests bring to light whether these future secretaries have come any closer to their goal of accuracy, so essential in the business world. Competing to win speed certificates, girls strive to improve their skill day by day.

GREEK? No, it's shorthand, the language of the secretary's world, demonstrated by Jacqueline Mrochek, Geraldine Novak, and Carol Senick.

SHARP PENCILS and sharper eyes note correct practices in bookkeeping. Students "stick to their books" and complete chapter-end projects. Eager Namers work hard preparing for thrice-yearly Bookkeeping Merit Award tests, which grant certificates to those who pass, and a trophy and a banner to the school of the April winner.

URGED ON by prospects of winning certificates for attaining speed plateaus, HN student typists hurry to typewriters each day, eager to begin their work. Speed tests every day record their progress on the road to mastery of the keyboard.

TYCOONS OF TOMORROW

Business Bees Buzz Busily

WITH CLICKS, CLACKS and few erasures, typing I students Sue Sejhar, Mary Ann Bradescu, and Georgiann Recko show the proper typing style.

CUTTING OUT the mat for an art student's masterpiece is Herman Weiderwohl. Offering their valuable assistance are Mary Ann Spisak and Thomas Skeel.

WITH THAT "certain touch", senior artist Geraldine Kerr finishes her masterpiece in oils under the approving and critical eye of fellow student, Joseph Balough.

ART STUDENTS delight us with their masterpieces. Working in oils, watercolors, pastels and mosaics, illuminating carefully lettered printing, making linoleum-block Christmas cards, posting the Carroll bulletin board, entering the Scholastic Art Exhibit, Catholic Book Week and Catholic Youth poster contests, and giving their own exhibits, all occupy time and talents of HN artists.

ATTENTION WIFE-HUNTERS! Home ec'ers practice what is preached in planning, buying and serving meals by studying theory and using it in bi-weekly lab, making and eating everything!

Alternating with cooking, these future homemakers sew up a storm. Starting on a simple blouse, they stitch right on through a complete wardrobe after two years of study.

DOUBLE TOIL AND TROUBLE are worth it—to gain Roger Jankowski's vision of leading a band and playing the best saxophone this side of HN.

Watch Us Grow

"A-ONE, A-TWO, A-THREE." Tom Cozzens counts the downbeat and swings into directing his imaginary orchestra of the future.

SC Aims for Closer Student Union

Steadily aiming for closer student-faculty cooperation in extra-curricular activities, Holy Name's Student Council forges ahead in its 1957 return. Many improvements have been wrought by enthusiastic members. Councilers initiated a chapter of the National Honor Society and founded the Lettermen's Club to which students earning athletic letters belong.

They started junior-senior noon social hour in the gym. Their intention box in the library is getting worn from use. Council members planned a memorable Career Day. St. Patrick looked down from heaven and saw Namers "living it up" at Council-sponsored "Blarney-Rock". "All in a year's work," sigh officers, turning to start another project.

A Way of Life, Imitation of Mary

SCURRYING TO AND FRO babysitting during the 9:00 and 11:15 Sunday Masses, serving at parish banquets, selling religious articles, and getting parish census cards in order are Sodalists of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

After two years of probation, freshmen are received for life into the Sodality on December 8. After Benediction and a talk by a guest speaker, the new members feast in the cafeteria and look forward to four years of apostolic labors and special spiritual benefits which truly make the Sodality a way of life.

"Heart Beat", the Sodality Valentine Day dance, gave a fun-filled evening to over 500 teeners. A King and Queen of Hearts reigned over the heart-cupid decorated gym which rocked to the rhythms of the Musitones. The proceeds of the dance are going to send delegates to this summer's Summer School of Catholic Action in New York.

New this year is the probationary instruction of seventh, eighth, and ninth graders during which junior and senior members teach the rules and the practical practice of them.

Monthly meetings, a roller skating party with St. John Cantius High, the May mother-daughter breakfast, and summer picnic are on the agenda for the Imitators of Mary.

"OH, YOU CUTE KID!" Sodality officers Pat Matlin, vice-prefect; Beatrice Bugay, treasurer; and Eileen Dunn, secretary, all agree with prefect Marieann Berg's opinion.

PROUD TO SHOW Msgr. Charles McDonough the set of vestments CSMC is sending to African seminarians are officers Tom Berger, Carol Stelter, Patricia Fisher, and Ronald Sustersic.

DO YOU WANT to be a missionary? You don't have to travel far. To continue the prayerful and financial support of both home and foreign missions is this year's chief aim of CSMC (Catholic Students' Mission Crusade). Zealous student missionaries have sent complete sets of white vestments to two native African seminarians for their ordinations.

Student homeroom representatives collect canceled stamps, tax stamps, Red Cross contributions, and voluntary donations used for projects like ransoming pagan babies. They give reports on mission meetings to those groups they represent. Mission moderator, Sister Esther, and officers promote interest in the bi-annual national CSMC convention at Notre Dame University in August. This event does more than any other single thing to foster missionary zeal among students.

SERVERS TAKE A JOURNEY

Unto God, the Joy of My Youth

"I WILL GO unto the altar of God," begins the great Sacrifice.

"Unto God, the joy of my youth," comes the response from the servers, who have found in doing their very special part in the re-enactment of Calvary that God truly is the joy of their youth.

These members of Holy Name's Server Society, as well as those boys who serve in their own parishes, find even in early-morning rising to do their privileged duty a soul-filling peace and contentment.

They know there is a great dignity to their work of assisting the priest in offering to God the Innocent Lamb. Worldly cares are forgotten for the sublime love of God which fills their hearts.

Kneeling only a few feet from the Divine Presence, they recite with devotion the responses which praise the Deity. Acts of adoration, thanksgiving, petition, and reparation are poured forth by their fervent hearts, until "Thanks be to God" rings through the air announcing the grand finale of the portrayal of God's love for man.

PREPARING TO GO to the altar of God for Benediction are servers' president Steve Benedick; vice-president John Murphy; treasurer Tom Cozzens; and secretary Michael Coleman.

ALERT MINDS, busy pencils, and clear writing are the ABC's of journalism students. Junior to senior, cub to veteran, contribute varied talents to turn out six issues of "The Name" and the complete story of the year in our annual, "Namer."

Juniors alternate studying American literature with the fine points of writing. Senior staffers steep themselves in English lit and blithely turn to composing their own "literature."

Study and activity periods and after-school hours find earnest journalists in their sparkling new "Green Room" typing, writing, planning, replanning and recorrecting to produce the best literary efforts for the best school, while adviser, Sister Mary Catherine, presides over all.

Jouralist Aim at Right Writing

While Telling Facts

HOT ON THE TRAIL of a sizzling front page story are "Name" co-editors Jane Sorenson and Michael Shovlin.

Setonites Foster Devotion to Patron

SOUP TO DESSERT are in the bundles Mother Seton officers are toting to feed the aged at the Little Sisters of the Poor. Setonites are Secretary Sue Betourney, President Laura Fantelli, and Treasurer Lynn Silassen.

FOSTERING DEVOTION to Mother Seton and promoting the cause of her canonization is the object of the Mother Seton Guild.

Distributing prayer leaflets for her canonization is a task members of the League undertake with great pride because Mother Seton is the saintly Foundress of the Sisters of Charity.

Since Mother Seton loved to visit the poor and aged, members of her guild at HN do so too. They sent Christmas cards on a large tree to St. Joseph's Home for the aged during that joyful season. Mother Seton members also held a Valentine party there. Many members visited Jennings Home to read letters to the old folks and to help the Sisters there with other chores.

Members set up a "portable" cardboard school-house in the library during book-week. It was in honor of Mother Seton to inspire Namers to read books helpful in developing fine Christian characters.

"PAUSE FOR REFRESHMENT" in the midst of covering books are student librarians Jane Sorensen, Bea Bugay, Georgiann Troyan, and Mary Kay Taylor, paging through a beautifully illustrated book on religions.

Information? Look to the Library!

WITH THE ADDITION of 300 new books this year, plus a spanking new set of Britannicas and orderly pamphlet and picture files, Scullen Library keeps step with the newest and finest between covers.

"Library Staff," reads the green and white book-shaped pin that all 36 student librarians wear with pride. Assisting students in areas from biography to reference and film strips, these solaces of information-seekers help keep in order all library functions.

"Information Please!" is the student librarians' theme this year. With six new groups, namely the co-operation, new books, publicity, shelf, information, and bulletin board committees, the club is aiming for perfect service to all library patrons.

Drill, Drill, Drill, for Perfection

"FOR THOUGH IT BE OUR BEST, it's not too good for dear old Holy Name!"

This strain from Holy Name's "Fight Song" could be the slogan of those powerhouses of skill and spirit, HN's band members. Perhaps it explains why they are the best in the city.

We Namers feel a thrill in our hearts when our snappy musicmakers march down the football field. A surging pride fills our veins when they win honors at the Cleveland Solo Contest and constructive criticism at John Carroll University.

SECOND ROW: Bea Bugay, Marilyn Clark, Lucy Mervar, Marge Murphy, Elaine Larkin, Noreen Burlinghaus, Patrick Cavanaugh, John Stulak.

Marching Green and White Is Tops

BRIGHT GREEN AND WHITE uniforms stand out in city-wide parades on Columbus Day, Christmas, St. Patrick's and Memorial Days as Holy Name Band shares the emotion-stirring music which has become a part of Lil' Davids' heritage.

But all this does not come about by magic. It's drill, drill, drill, every Tuesday and Thursday, under the enthusiastic leadership of Mr. Robert Pattie, band director at HN for the past nine years. Mr. Pattie inspires band members to strive for perfection, to uphold the wonderful reputation of the Marching Green and White.

SECOND ROW: Dennis Osowski, Arthur Aytay, Daniel Jankowski, Beverly Vystricil, Carol Borsek, Barbara Henry, Albert Irion.

CCD Girls Help Impart the Faith

TEACHERS OF TOMORROW and their apt pupils Ellen Smilanich, Carol Senik, June Valencic, Carol Passafiume, Carol Hartman, Johnny Prykan, Pat Matlin, and Carol Milroy.

TO HELP IMPART A better understanding of the Faith to Catholic children attending public schools is the aim of CCD assistants.

These junior and senior girls gladly volunteer their services every Sunday morning and Monday after school to help the Sisters who teach the 396 grade school children.

Various groups, each with a definite duty to perform, make the girls' work easier and more efficient.

Calling the homes of absentees is the special task of the telephone squad. The messenger service group prepares and passes the materials used in classes. Teachers' aides assist pupils who need special help.

Private-home teachers go to the homes of disabled children. Other volunteers do clerical work and help supervise special activities.

LOOKING OVER the newly issued charter of the Namer Scholastic Chapter of the National Honor Society are Virginia Kollin and Ronald Farrar.

WITH A PLEDGE to uphold high ideals of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, Namer Scholastic inductees officially became members of the National Honor Society.

In early December a drafting committee of 10 seniors composed a constitution, sent it to Washington D. C., and on its approval introduced the Society as an official organization at HN for the first time in school history.

All members are striving to keep their averages high — intellectually and morally.

NHS Spells High Ideals

WITH A CHEER, James Denes, Charles Zimmermann, Dale Mudra, and Bill Andreski direct the vocal cords of exuberant members of the Green Wave. From "Hello" to "Vict'ry" our cheerleaders whip up spirits.

"IS EVERYBODY HAPPY?"

The three freshmen and one sophomore, though perhaps the smallest cheerleaders in the West Senate, have for their theme song: "We may be little, but we're loud—and full of the Spirit which has kept Lil' David on top through the years!"

Under the direction of Sister Margaret Alexander, they practice a half-hour three mornings a week, developing new cheers and gestures.

A cheer contest held the first semester added to the vocabulary of Lil' David's loyal rooters the winning cheer of sophomore Gerry Nemeth: "Hey there, hey there! Listen to this!" We've got four cheerleaders who just can't miss!

Cheerleaders Rouse Spirits, Fight

ATHLETES UNITE

We Present the Lettermen's Club

WE ARE PROUD TO PRESENT the Lettermen's Club, newly organized by Mr. Jack Zebkar. The present "varsity sports family" at HN derived its constitution from various other constitutions of Lettermen's Clubs using only the best points and adding some of their own ideas.

With Mr. Zebkar as moderator, the club also has four other officers: president, Steve Drvenkar; vice president, Robert Hogue; secretary, Joe Walters; treasurer, Thomas Torowski.

Becoming a member means receiving a letter in a varsity sport. After graduation, a letterman who remains active will still be a member.

Promoting athletics at HN and showing what athletics can do to help build a boy's character is the main purpose of the club.

The lettermen have plans ready for the next school year. Selling admission tickets from house to house for the football games is going to be the biggest project. Among other things, they will also try to motivate students to reach a high goal.

"HIKE!" With visions of that coveted letter, frosh Pat Moran forges onward for a first year down.

Watch Us Grow

"CHARGE!" goes big Wayne Sadowski toward his goal—future football star.

WEST TECH

With Dennis Mahoney scoring on touchdown runs of 49 and 6 yards respectively, Namers defeated West Tech 14-7 at West Tech Field in their first Senate game.

J. F. RHODES

A 24-yard touchdown pass was the difference between victory and defeat as the Green Wave suffered its first setback by 7-0 score against Rhodes High at John Adams Field Sept. 27. Bob Hogue and Joe Lubinski were standouts despite the defeat.

LINCOLN

With quarterback Al Mitermiler scoring three touchdowns on runs of 2, 4, and 40 yards, the Green Wave rolled over Lincoln Oct. 5 at Rhodes Field. The Namers were now in second place in the race for the West Senate championship with a record of two victories and one defeat.

WEST HIGH

Scoring in the final minutes of play on a 4-yard run by half-back Allan Sekerak, the Green Wave gained a 6-6 deadlock with West High Oct. 11.

The touchdown was set up by a 40-yard pass from quarterback Dennis Galayda to end Tom Fath, who took the ball to the 4-yard line.

ST. IGNATIUS

Outplayed throughout the game, the Green Wave suffered its second setback by a 42-0 score at the hands of St. Ignatius at West Tech Field Oct. 19.

Finish Season With 5-3-1 Mark

SOUTH

Determined to keep the Pig Iron Trophy, South's Flyers upset Holy Name by a 12-7 score at West Tech Field Oct. 26. Hank Arslanian sparked the Flyers, scoring both of South's touchdowns, while the Namers' score came on a 45-yard interception by Al Mitermiler.

ST. JOSEPH

Showing their best offensive attack and defensive line play this season, Namers scored an upset victory over the Vikings 28-7 in an independent game at John Adams Field Nov. 2. Dennis Mahoney led the scoring with touchdowns on plunges of 8, 3, and 2 yards respectively. James Dudziak scored the final touchdown on a 2-yard run.

JOHN MARSHALL

With a 20-0 triumph over the John Marshall Lawyers at West Tech Field Nov. 8, the Namers concluded the '57 West Senate football season with a 3-3-1 record and finished tied for fourth place in the final Senate standings.

The Green Wave was sparked by senior Dennis Mahoney who struck pay dirt twice on runs of 5 and 2 yards respectively.

ST. EDWARDS

A 58-yard interception by Al Mitermiler proved the big factor in the Namers' final game, a 6-0 defeat over St. Edwards Eagles. Dennis Mahoney again led the team, scoring the only touchdown on a 7-yard run behind fine offensive blocking led by seniors George Brzozowski, Wayne Sadowski, and Steve Drvenkar. Thus the improved Namers' '57 football season came to an end wtih a 5-3-1 record.

Gridiron Action Shows Spirit

The team, composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, started showing the benefits of experience during the last quarter of the season when they held their own against stronger opponents.

With another year ahead of him, Jack Stulak, junior guard, looks like a top scorer for Coach Lavalle's boys. Sophomores Dan Holloran and Len Stevens, after gaining valuable practice this year, should be stalwarts the next two years.

TAKING UP many of the after-school hours of student managers are such duties as cleaning locker rooms, caring for equipment, and planning tasks for the coming week.

The boys are constantly with the team, taking care of all their needs. At the games students see how the managers are always on hand with first aid kits, towels, and warm-up jackets.

More undercover activities of the managers are cheering, kibitzing, second guessing, and keeping plenty of aspirin on hand for the coach.

Faculty Boosts Team Morale

THE REV. DANIEL R. McBRIDE took over the duties of athletic director at Holy Name succeeding Rev. James E. Hughes who was transferred to St. Clement Parish, Lakewood last June.

As director, Father McBride is in charge of the entire athletic program at Holy Name. His many tasks include setting schedules, purchasing equipment, contracting for fields, obtaining referees, and selling tickets.

As the athletes' spiritual advisor, Father emphasizes the fact that athletics should help to make a boy or a girl into a mature, well-rounded individual.

MRS. RUTH SEITZ is known and loved by all Namers for her warm smile and friendly greetings. With the thought of Mrs. Seitz come memories of many events: football and basketball games, dances, and all the many other extras which make our high school years enjoyable.

Mrs. Seitz attends practically every game played by HN teams. You usually meet her at the door, where she collects, stamps, or punches your tickets or pass.

Teaching at Holy Name since 1929, she has known many of us since the seventh grade. One of the most inspiring talks we remember was given by Mrs. Seitz as she spoke for the first time at a rally this year.

In and Outdoor Fun

IN THE GYM, on the court, on skating rinks and golf courses, Namers are having fun. Almost every sport is represented. Bowling and skating have a large number of followers at Holy Name. Hunting, fishing, and weight lifting also have many fans.

"OH! YOU WOULDN'T", squeals Marilyn Mears as Mike Coleman decides he will.

Principal Bids Grads Godspeed

Dear Graduates of '58:

The theme of your yearbook, WATCH US GROW, is an invitation to the faculty and a challenge to you.

If we are to WATCH, it follows that your growth must be manifest. You must grow socially, mentally, spiritually. Stand always with your feet firmly in the present, your faces toward the future. You cannot claim the glories of the past. You must go forward creating new frontiers.

Use wisely what some one has called "the sacrament of the present moment". Be alert. Use every opportunity to advance. Be ambitious for the good things this world holds out to you. But remember always that there is only one growth of eternal worth: growth unto the likeness of Christ. There is only one priceless goal: the attainment of the Beatific Vision without which all other achievements are worthless.

Make all plans for growth and advancement with God in mind. If He accompanies you on the way, you will be certain of success.

The dearest word in our language is LOVE. The greatest, GOD. The word expressing the shortest and most important moment of time is NOW. The three words together express the greatest and sweetest duty of man: LOVE GOD NOW

May God be with you now and in the future in all that you love and hope for.

Compiling this yearbook has been a wonderful and unusual experience. We have tried to make this an annual which will bring back many unforgettable moments.

We could not have done it without the help and cooperation of our enthusiastic staff and the encouragement and help of our teacher and classmates.

We especially thank Monsignor McDonough, our president, and Sister Marie William, our principal, for their confidence in us. We are grateful to faculty and students alike for their patience on picture days.

To Miss Mary E. Hill, of the Gray Printing Company, to Mr. Harold Hardman, Mr. Hans Rawraway, and the other personnel of Chesshire Studio, our official photographers; to Mr. Ivy Rush, for underclass pictures in the album section; and to Mr. James Sackerson, for sports pictures, we are very grateful. To these and to all others who in any way have helped make our book a reality, we say a fervent "God love you."

We hope that you have as much fun reading this book as we did editing it.

Sincerely,
Doris Dukes
Marcella Witkowski
